

Dear colleague,

We are very pleased to invite you to participate in the XXVIth International Conference on Polyphenols initiated by the "GROUPE POLYPHENOLS" and organized by Prof. Annalisa ROMANI and Dr. Patrizia PINELLI from July 22 to 26, 2012 in Florence (Italy), where we expect about 300-400 participants.

The topics that will be covered in the conference are the following:

- Topic 1 – Chemistry and Physico-Chemistry
- Topic 2 – Biosynthesis, Genetics and Metabolic Engineering
- Topic 3 – Roles in Plant and Ecosystems
- Topic 4 – Health and Nutrition
- Topic 5 – Polyphenols and Drug Discovery

There will be invited lectures, oral presentations and poster communications. You are kindly invited to take active part in the Conference by submitting an abstract related to Polyphenols to any of the Congress topics. All accepted communications will be further published as 2-page manuscripts in the conference proceedings "Polyphenols Communications 2012".

Further details of the Conference can be obtained from the Conference website:
